A RATHER QUIET 4TH

A General Holiday Observed With Many Out.

Amusements of Every Description Getting a Share of the Public Attention.

MANY VISITORS ARE HERE

The Fourth, a hot but auspicious day, is being somewhat quietly celebrated today, but everybody appears to be enjoying a holiday, and there are people at every place of amusement in large numbers. The stores nearly all closed at noon, and the banks, postoffice and courts were out of business until Monday.

Large crowds went across the river, many are at the Old Fort Massac celebration near Metropolis, while Wallace park is filled with picnickers and sightseers, and the old harmony singing is enjoying an immense crowd.

MILITARY BOYS HERE.

A portion of the Murray boys arrived last night, but the remainder of the company will get here this afternoon at 1:20. Mayfield is represented with about thirty-five. The total number of soldiers from the different cities are: Murray 55, Mayfield 35, Clinton 35 and Paducah 60, making a total of 185 soldiers.

The Clinton boys arrived at noon with nearly the full military company. About thirty members are here and a good showing will be made at the sham battle.

MANY VISITORS ARRIVE.

Roadmaster J. M. Russell of the Louisville division of the I. C. is in the city today looking after the trains. The traffic on the road is heavy in the passenger service and the trainmen have all they can attend to. Both accommodation trains were loaded this morning and over a thousand people were brought in on the Hopkinsville and Fulton accommodation trains.

PERFORMANCES AT LA BELLE.

There will be four performances at the Casino, La Belle park, this afternoon and evening and the theater will no doubt be taxed to its utmost at every performance. The Seward shows are drawing large audiences and today will be the banner day.

FACTORIES CLOSED DOWN.

Few, if any of the factories are running today. The employees are consequently out for a holiday and the railroads are not having much of a rush except in the passenger service, as no freight will be received or shipped today.

CROWDS LARGER THAN USUAL.

The railroad companies and boats are doing an enormous business and more people were brought here on the three morning trains and the several boats than have ever been brought here before for a Fourth of July celebration, it is said.

BASEBALL TODAY.

The baseball game between the Pepsi and Coca Colas will be witnessed by a large crowd, and the sham battle by perhaps as many as the park will hold. The military boys are here in large numbers and will make a splendid display.

RIVER SHOW ARRIVES.

The Swallow & Markle river show arrived last night and today the band paraded the streets and attracted a great deal of attention. The show has been here before and will doubtless get its share of patronage.

K. OF P. GO TO METROPOLIS.

The Uniform Rank No. 19, K. P., went to Metropolis this morning to appear in the exhibition drill. About twenty members of the rank went down and the K. P. lodge here will be well represented.

ASKS $1,000 DAMAGES.

Mr. F. M. Lawrence, the second-hand dealer of 216 court street, today filed suit against Armour & Co. for $1,000 damages, alleging that the defendant did maintain a nuisance in the way of a poultry slaughter house near his place of business and he has been damaged to that extent.

KENTUCKY POSTMEN

State Convention of Letter Carriers in Session Here.

Nine Out-of-Town Delegates Arrive—Business Meeting This Afternoon.

TONIGHT IS THE BANQUET

The State Letter Carriers' convention is being held today in Paducah. This morning the delegates from other cities arrived at 4 o'clock and were met at the depot by the local reception committee.

There are nine out-of-town delegates, as follows: Charles W. Huber and W. E. Farley, Louisville; Henry Rauch and D. E. Berry, Covington; W. M. Newton, Newport; E. R. Simcox, Robert L. Skinner and W. T. S. Carpenter, Lexington; Owen W. Furr, Frankfort. An informal reception was held this morning at the Palmer house, at which refreshments were served to the guests until noon.

This afternoon at 1 o'clock the business session began at Masonic hall and will probably last three hours. It will include the transaction of all business essential to the welfare of the Letter Carriers' association.

The delegates are all gentle, highly respected young men, and it is the first visit of most of them to Paducah. The postmen find it more difficult to get off to attend conventions than perhaps any other members of organizations, and they have so arranged it that the business can be transacted by a few.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

1 o'clock. Invocation—Rev. W. H. Robertson. Welcome address—D. A. Yeiser, Mayor.

Address of Welcome to Our Guests—J. G. Curd, president Branch 383.

Response—State President Henry Rauch, Newport.

Business Session Program to be Arranged by State President.

Address—Hon. F. M. Fisher, P. M., Paducah.

Address—Hon. W. C. Clark, ex-postmaster, Paducah.

Address—T. B. McGregor, Benton. Subject: "The Substitute Letter Carrier."

EVENING SESSION.

Reception to invited guests at Palmer House parlors 9 to 9:30 p. m.

Banquet 9:30 to 11:30 p. m. Toastmaster—Captain Ed Farley, ex-postmaster, introduced by President Curd, Branch 383.

Responses to toasts by the following gentlemen: State President Henry Rauch, Hon. Charles K. Wheeler, ex-congressman, Major J. H. Ashcraft, ex-P. M., Hon. Chas. Reed, Dr. Don Gilbert, Captain J. E. Williamson, R. L. Skinner, state vice president, and F. M. Fisher, postmaster.

NICE PROGRAM

RENDERED AT CLOSING EXERCISES OF HOME OF FRIENDLESS SCHOOL.

Closing exercises of the school at the Home of the Friendless were held Tuesday afternoon. The children under the excellent management of Miss Raper, matron and teacher at the home, acquitted themselves with credit. The school room, which has been endowed by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Friedman, in memory of Mr. Friedman's father, the late Leopold Friedman, is furnished with every appliance for a well regulated school.

Ices and cake were served to the children after the exercises.

RAILROAD BRIDGE ON FIRE.

A telephone message received just before going to press this afternoon states that the Tennessee river bridge of the Illinois Central is on fire and had burned in two. All telegraph wires are expected to go down. As the bridge is iron, the damage will likely not be great. It is supposed sparks from a locomotive set it afire.

Justice R. J. Barber went to Dawson today to spend the 4th.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week $600,446
Same week last year 611,145
Decrease 10,699

Bank clearings show a slight decrease from the same week last year. This has been the case, however, in but few weeks this year. The first half of 1903 has closed and the period was the most profitable in the history of local banks. The expansion of their business was remarkable. The loans and discount accounts show an increase of nearly $700,000 in a year and the deposit accounts an increase of over $500,000. The net earnings showed the largest on record, too. As the banks are best indicators of the prosperity of a city these figures give an idea of the growth and great prosperity of Paducah.

Wholesale business for the week showed up a little better. Weather conditions were more favorable for the crops, and a better feeling exists all around.

Retail trade has been good, the majority of the houses reporting a good increase over the same period last year, notwithstanding the backwardness of summer.

THE LODGES

Red Men Take in Two Popular Citizens Last Night.

Elks Honor Past Officer—Other Secret Order News.

The Red men last night held their regular meeting and conferred the adoption degree on Police Captain Henry Bailey and Former Councilman G. R. Davis. The order is now one of the largest and most popular in the city.

The Uniform Rank K. of P. left today for Metropolis, where they will be guests of the rank of that place and assist in the big celebration at Old Fort Massac. The Paducah and Metropolis Sir Knights have established the most cordial of relations and need less to say all will enjoy the day.

A fine past exalted ruler's badge has been presented by the Paducah lodge of Elks to Capt. Wm. Kraus, past exalted ruler. Capt. Kraus was a most popular officer and is very proud of the jewel.

The election of officers of the Uniform Rank, Woodmen of the World, has been postponed until next Tuesday. The new organization promises to be one of the most popular in the city.

Ingle side lodge of Odd Fellows installed officers last night as follows: J. G. Switzer, noble grand; Frank L. Smith, vice grand; R. L. Gilbert, right support to noble grand; J. G. Smith, left support to noble grand; Q. P. Wallace, I. O.; V. G. Berry, W.; J. H. Maxwell, chaplain; W. O. Roark, R. S. S.; Charles Lock, L. S. S.; Charles Pryor, inner guard; S. J. Craig, outer guard; J. M. Cockrill, right support to vice grand; A. R. Davis, left support to vice grand. The finance committee is A. O. Meyer, J. T. Hutchens and Earl Hazen. Mangum lodge has postponed its installation until Thursday evening.

Mr. Robert Noble, the contractor, is entertaining about fifty of his friends over at the lakes today with a barbecue, and a most enjoyable time is being spent.

DEBATE ENDS

Both Sides Satisfied With the Result of it.

Two Ministers Fined in Graves County for a Breach of Peace.

The big religious debate at Sedalia, Graves county, between Revs. Hall and Pigue has ended and was heard by a large crowd during the four days it lasted. Both Baptists and Methodists are confident their minister won, and there was nothing to mar the perfect harmony and good feeling which prevailed during the contest. Wild Bill Evans and W. M. Hicks, who had trouble of a wordy nature before the debate began, were tried before Justice Wilson and fined $5 and costs each. The Mayfield Messenger says of them:

"Public sentiment was strongly against them and many have expressed themselves that they should have been fined heavier for their conduct, but this may teach them an important lesson, and that hereafter they must not be so severe in their criticisms of each other."

"The debate was well attended by ministers of the Baptist church, there being over thirty present each day. The Methodist ministers were not there in such large numbers. The debate is over, however, and all is calm and serene."

ALLEGED FORGERY.

SON OF CAPT. TYNER CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENSE.

Thomas Tyner, son of Captain James Tyner, of the Buttorff, is wanted here on a charge of forgery. It is claimed that he had Mr. George Goodman, the Second street liquor dealer, cash a check for him several days ago which proved to be a forgery. The check was apparently signed by Tyner & Earhart, of Nashville, and was returned as a forgery.

Captain Tyner stated that his son had forged a number of checks that he, Captain Tyner, had to make good, and he would no longer put up with it, and consequently the boy will be prosecuted if caught.

ONE LITTLE FLASH

Sent Vibrating Around World By Telegraph Today.

Pacific Cable Opened and Postal Circles the World With a Message.

HOW THE FEAT WAS DONE

The course of President Roosevelt's message around the world today was by the Postal Telegraph Co.'s land line from Oyster Bay to San Francisco, thence by the Commercial Pacific cables to Honolulu, to Midway, to Guam and to Manila. From Manila to Hong Kong the message passed by the cable which was lifted and cut by Admiral Dewey in 1898. From Hong Kong it went to Saigo, to Singapore, to Penang, to Madras, to Bombay, to Aden, to Suez, to Alexandria, to Malta, to Gibraltar, to Lisbon and to the Azores. Between Hong Kong and the Azores it had passed by foreign cables. At the Azores it was taken up again by the Commercial cables and sent to Canso, to New York and to Oyster Bay. The time of transmission was at noon today.

A message starting around the world at 5 a. m. today would arrive at Honolulu at 11 p. m. yesterday; at Midway at 10 p. m. yesterday; at Guam at 7 p. m. today, and at Manila at 8 p. m. today. It would pass through India at 8 p. m. today and would return to New York before 6 a. m.

Thus it would have an excursion from today into yesterday and have arrived back at New York within an hour of the time it started. Another message leaving New York at 8 p. m. today would arrive at Guam at 7 a. m. tomorrow, apparently fourteen hours after it started, continuing its journey around the world, it would arrive at Suez at midnight of today and back to New York this morning.

On May 16, 1896, at the National Electrical exposition held in the Grand Central Palace, New York, to demonstrate the promptness of modern telegraphic service a message written by the Hon. Chauncey Depew was sent from New York to Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Vancouver, Winnipeg and Canso to London, thence via Lisbon to Gibraltar, Malta, Alexandria, Suez, Aden, Bombay, Madras, Singapore, Hong Kong, Shanghai, Nagasaki and to Tokio and back again to New York, where it was received by Mr. Thos. A. Edison.

FEW ARRESTS

No Police Court Today and Few Happenings of Interest.

Females Fight and Will be Warranted for Trial Monday Morning.

Considerable excitement was created on a park car last night by a drunken man who insisted on cursing in the presence of ladies returning from the park. Motorman Burrows asked him to desist, but he became worse and started to pick up a rock with which to strike the motorman. He was then struck in the face with the switch key and had his nose split open. Subsequently he got possession of an iron rod used to turn switches and started through the car as if to go after the motorman, but was placed on the rear end and the door shut. No warrants were issued and the man's name was not learned.

In accordance with the order of the court, there was no session of the police court this morning, as it was a holiday.

Yesterday afternoon Ernest Dorf and John Bulger were arrested in the sum of $150 each for robbing a man of $25 last Saturday at a South Second street saloon. Hadder Stone, the colored girl who threw a rock through an I. C. window was held to answer in the sum of $50 and Bud Hill for rescuing her from officer.

Bulger and Elmendorf have given the $150 bond required of them and been released.

The police are making it warm for cows caught running at large, and if your cow truns up missing make inquiry at the city hall.

Minnie Grimes and Lillie Wormstead will be tried Monday on a charge of disorderly conduct, for which they were arrested by Officers Nance and Gourieux last night.

The police are investigating a fight that occurred last night between two women at Fifth and Court streets over a man. They had a lively scrap for awhile, but neither was seriously hurt. Warrants will be issued and the case will be aired in police court Monday.

George Brown, colored, was arrested last night on a breach of the peace charge by Officers Moore and Rogers. He will be given a hearing Monday.

SUIT RE-INSTATED

Ohio Concern Asks Judgment Against Calloway.

Request Lien and Sale of Property Amounting to $2,086.97.

A suit was today filed in the U. S. court here by the Aultman-Taylor Co., of Ohio, against W. and T. H. Hargrove, of Calloway county, to secure a lien and sale of property to satisfy a balance of $2,086.97 on a judgment secured several years ago.

The petition stated that in 1888 the plaintiff secured a judgment for $2,118.48 with interest and that only $1,365 had been paid on it, leaving at this date a balance, interest and principle, of $2,086.97. It is alleged that the defendants have property and the plaintiffs pray for a lien on same and that the action be redocketed and the prayer granted for lien and sale of property.

FIRST ISSUE

JOURNAL OF LABOR MADE ITS APPEARANCE TODAY.

The Journal of Labor a paper devoted to the interest of local unions made its first appearance today, Samuel Simon editor. The intention is to make it a permanent institution.

Central Labor union is to shortly give an excursion in Paducah and the committee on arrangements is now at work preparing for it. The committeemen are: Messrs. Wm. Hoffman, L. Crandell, C. Bundy, P. Smith, Wm. Rawlings, J. Weikert, P. Martin, J. Stokes, M. Danaher, T. Scoopes, W. J. Forrest and Jerome Smith.

Organizer Sam Simon has installed a painters' and decorators' union at Mayfield. George Goddard is president.

COUSINS MARRY.

CAME FROM ILLINOIS BECAUSE THEY COULD NOT MARRY THERE.

Miss Regina Delenne and Mr. Jesse Johnston of Collinsville, Ill., were married at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening at the parsonage of St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. Rev. Father H. W. Jansen performed the ceremony.

The couple came here to be married because they are cousins, and it is against the law of the state of Illinois for cousins to wed. They returned home today.

ASKED TO RESIGN

Law and Order League Call on School Trustees.

Two Good Addresses and a Number of Good Talks Heard at the Meeting Last Night.

SEVERAL OFFICERS ELECTED

The Good Government league met last night at the Broadway M. E. church and eleven members were added. In an election of officers Mr. B. H. Scott was elected first vice president and Mr. W. J. Hills second vice president and Mr. W. B. Smith treasurer.

The following clause was added to the by-laws:

"It is distinctly understood that this league is not organized for the benefit of any candidate for office, and, unless by special action of the league to the contrary, the announcement as a candidate for office of any member shall be considered as his resignation as a member."

Addresses were made by Rev. W. C. Sellars on "The Responsibility of an Officer" and Rev. Thos. J. Newell on "The Responsibility of the Citizen." Talks were made by several others, and before the meeting adjourned the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, Mr. Ben Weille, as shown by the records of the courts, is a persistent violator of the statute laws of Kentucky, and

"Whereas, One Samuel Jackson is also the manager of a band of men who persistently violate the said laws, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the Good Government league of Paducah, Ky., that they resign as members of the school board of the city of Paducah and they are hereby requested to do so."

ALLOWED CLAIMS.

AND DEMOCRATS IN M'CRACKEN WILL SOON RECEIVE MONEY.

The Democratic state executive committee met at Frankfort yesterday and allowed the various claims against the committee for expenses incurred at the primary in May. The total expenses amounted to $19,600, and $16,000 of this was assessed against candidates, leaving $3600 yet to be paid by the nominees.

A committee was before the body relative to the Bush-Cook judicial contest but the committee decided not to hear it at present.

Chairman Young announced his intention to fight the Louisville machine until one of them gets licked.

REPULSIVE FEATURES.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

TO HEAR CONTEST.

COMMITTEEMEN FIND THEY ARE COMPELLED TO SIT IN CASE.

The contest of Attorney L. K. Taylor for the Democratic nomination for commonwealth's attorney in this district will probably be tried shortly by the judicial committee, composed of Chairman Morrison, of McCracken and Chairman Edwards, of Marshall, after all. It has been discovered that the law makes it compulsory on the committeemen to hear such contests, instead of making it optional with them. Preparations are accordingly being made to take up the matter again, and Mr. Lovett has filed his answer to the allegations contained in Taylor's contest papers.

CURES SCIATICA.

INTERESTING W. L. Riley, LL.D., Cuba, writes: "After fifteen days of agonizing pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I to rent, $3 induced to try Ballard's Snow and thimble, the first application giving me first relief, and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

CURES WEAK MEN FREE.

Insures Love and a Happy Home for All. How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. Knapp Medical Co., 1616 Hull Building, Detroit, Mich., and they will gladly send free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from their daily mail show what men think of their generosity.

"Dear Sirs—Please accept my sincere thanks for your recent date. I have given your treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sirs—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sirs—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain, sealed envelope. The receipt is free for asking and they want every man to have it.

BE KIND TO ANIMALS.

(St. Louis Chronicle.)

A man was driving a beautiful horse. At the roadside was a watering trough. The animal swerved from the road. Its delicate muzzle was quivering and a short whinny said as plain as a horse can talk, "Master, I am very thirsty; please can I have a drink?"

The answer was a jerk on the reins, a blow with the whip, and the rig disappeared in a cloud of dust.

That was cruelty—unthinking cruelty—and it brings up the whole question of hot weather treatment of animals.

Is your horse given water frequently? Do you give your dog and your cat water as often as they desire it, or do you simply guess they will find all the water they need?

The owner of any animal, large or small, who does not think of these things is not fit to own a dumb brute. Not to provide for the wants of domestic animals and pets is cruelty that causes torture. It is not safe to trust to an animal's finding food or drink. In a wild state they were able to do this. Domesticated they have learned to rely on man, and in many instances they have met with base betrayal. Water is as essential as food. In the hot days of July and August it really comes before food.

Kindness to animals is more than kindness; it is justice.

The man who beats a horse can be reached by the law, although too seldom does he meet with his just deserts.

The man who does not beat his horse and who forgets to water him for long periods can seldom be reached by the law, and yet his cruelty is far greater than temporary pain that follows the feel of the lash.

Think about these things. Remember how it feels when your own throat is dry and parched, and look after the needs of your four-footed friends.

THE BOSS WORM MEDICINE.

H. P. Kumpe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick and threw up all food; could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

EXPRESS COMPANIES

LIFT RATES.

Chicago, July 4.—Announcements of a heavy advance in merchandise rates were sent out today to all the shippers by the express companies. The new schedule went into effect on July 1 by joint agreement and henceforth the shipper of packages weighing less than fifty pounds will have to bear the burden of the increase.

THE PERFECT LIVER MEDICINE.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years and can cheerfully recommend it is the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever-producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Advancement in Norway.

A Swedish company has purchased the Rjukan Falls at Telemarken, in Norway, in order to apply its power to industrial purposes. This is one of the largest waterfalls in the world, and plans are being drawn up for making use of it. This company tried to obtain some of the falls in Sweden, but that Government retained them for public objects.

WILL BE ARTISTIC

Coming Production of "Faust" Arouses Great Interest.

Will be the Most Complete, Elaborate and Satisfactory Amateur Performance on Record Here.

DETAILS OF ARRANGEMENTS

The greatest interest is being taken in the forthcoming production of "Faust" for the benefit of the Paducah chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, by local talent, assisted by Mr. James A. Young of New York, a young actor of considerable note, who will be seen in the role of Mephisto, and by Miss Lillian Lancaster, Paducah's gifted little actress, who is fast gaining an enviable place in the drama. It will be remembered that Mr. Young and Miss Lancaster were seen here in "Quo Vadis," and were greeted by the largest house that ever crowded the Kentucky. Their friends are anxiously looking forward to this second appearance, and in the beautiful classic "Faust," the greatest of German masterpieces of literature, their talents will have a wider scope.

The play is a very ambitious one, the parts of Mephisto and Marguerite demanding extreme versatility. Mephisto, as is well known, is one of the strongest and most difficult characters of the drama, while the role of Marguerite ranges from the gentle, child-like innocence of the famous garden scene to supreme and tragic emotion of the death scene in the prison.

The beautiful moral of the play is one that will live through all the ages, and is one that touches the heart and soul of every Christian thinker; the eternal battle of the church and the devil, with the church and love of God triumphant.

The entire cast has been carefully selected, and Paducah will be both surprised and proud of the amount of real talent that has developed here. The whole production will be put on with every precision and as much regard to details as if a professional one. Special scenery and electrical effects for the weird Broken scene have been brought from New York and altogether it promises to be a beautiful scenic treat.

The noble cause for which it is produced should assure a packed house, and this, together with the popularity of the members of the company, leaves no room to doubt of its perfect success.

The following is the complete cast: Mephisto—Mr. James A. Young. Faust—Mr. Omar Fowler. Valentine—Mr. Edwin J. Paxton. Wagner, Brandon, Feeche, Siebel, students—Mr. Will Gilbert, Mr. Bert Gilbert, Mr. Arthur Y. Martin, Mr. Robert Caldwell.

Martha—Miss Geraldine Sanders. Elsie—Miss Mary Sykes. Liza—Miss Frances Herndon. Olga—Miss May V. Patterson. Gretchen—Miss May Hayes. Marguerite—Miss Lillian Lancaster. Peasant boys and village children—Maybelle Beyer, Floyd Swift, Mobeeta Smith, Dow Gilson, Claire St. John, Katherine Thomas, Della Gilson, Willie Willis, Bessie Grigsby, May Frederick, Emma Greer, Olga List, Mollie Gardner, Rosella Farley, Lena Edwards, Helen Hills.

Choir boys—James Langstaff, Walker Bowman, Rudolph Bowman, Rabb Noble Kirkland, Harry Sloan, Frank Wahl, Fred Wahl, Tom Terrell, Lee McElwee, James McElwee, Lionel Levy, Dave Yeiser, Norvin Alley, Goverel Kosenenthal, Las Powell, Warren Gilbert, Nelson Soule, Billie Powell, Sam Winstead, Wheeler Worten, Emmett Quick.

Demons, witches, evil spirits, etc. Harry Gilbert, musical director.

THE SUN'S PUZZLE PICTURE.

Ling Lung had not expected to celebrate the Fourth. Can you see the two boys who set off the mine?

The Week In Society.

SUMMER WANDERERS.

The warm weather will start the usual summer exodus of Paducah people to summer resorts in the next few weeks. The watering places near this city have all had their openings and will doubtless be liberally patronized by Paducahans during the warm months as they generally are. Dawson, Cerulean, Crittenden, Creal and Dixon vie in popularity, and each has many Paducah visitors, during the season.

Many people from this city will go to Michigan, and a few to the mountains of Tennessee and North Carolina. The Morton family of this place, including Misses Mollie, Susie, Adine and Oherie Morton left Tuesday of last week for their summer home in Flat Rock, N. C. They will remain until October. Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Hicks are spending the summer in the Tennessee mountains.

SOCIETY AND THE FOURTH.

No special entertainments of a patriotic character have been arranged to celebrate the glorious Fourth, by Paducah society. Several informal picnics are on the program for today, and a large crowd will attend the baseball game this afternoon to be played at Wallace park, between the Coca Colas and the Peppols, for the benefit of the Home of the Friendless.

PRESS CONVENTION TRIP.

Miss Mary Boswell and Miss Anne Boswell and probably others from Paducah will attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Press convention in Lexington July 22-23. A trip east which will include Canada has been arranged. Niagara Falls is in the itinerary and the tour will prove a most delightful one.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Foster entertained with a dance at Wallace park pavilion Friday evening. As one of the first out door dances of the season, it was much enjoyed. The guests were: Messrs. G. R. Noble, H. W. Hinkle, W. B. McPherson, L. P. Jones, Harris Rankin, Harry McElwee, Peter Puryear, Fred Rudy, James P. Smith, P. H. Stewart, R. G. Terrell, H. E. Thompson, H. L. Bradley, W. F. Miss Elizabeth Wilson entertained a few of her friends with a farewell dance at the residence of her grandmother Joseph Johnson, Tuesday evening. Miss Wilson, her grandmother, her mother, Mrs. Chloe Wilson, and little brother, will leave July 15 for St. Louis to reside. The guests were: Misses Lillian Logue, Leah Johnson, Kate Holliday, Virginia Johnson, Eunice McElhaney, Claire St. John, Floyd Swift, Horstense Thurman, May Belle Beyer, Nellie Henneberger, Theresa Willett, Inez Kruger, Messrs. Harry King, Muir Given, Ivo Pettit, Frank McCarney, Louis Carnes, Carol Givens, Henry Henneberger, Jesse Thurman, Rob Leigh, W. T. McDowell, Duffot, George Holliday, Strother Smith, Will Graham, Edgar Warren, Eugene Richardson, Boone, Bolton.

Mrs. H. S. Wells entertained a few young people informally at lunch Tuesday evening at her home on Court street near Fifth in honor of Miss Florence Hutchinson on Chicago, guest of Mrs. Frank Fulton. The first prize a box of candy was won by Miss Hutchinson. The booby prize, a bottle of shoe polish went to Mr. George DuBois. The guests were: Misses Florence Hutchinson, Chicago; Frances Terrell, Marjorie Scott, Gertrude Scott, Ethel Brooks, Louise Cox, Messrs. John Brooks, George DuBois, Vaughan Scott, David Koger, George Poage, and Douglas Bagby. Light refreshments were served.

The following party was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. John Hall to Metropolis Landing for a picnic Tuesday: Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, Mrs. Bessie Allen, Mrs. J. J. Freunlich and Misses Bernice Greif, Fannie Clark, Bess Hall, Carrie Ham, Lillie Hubbard, of Hickman. Messrs. George Moore and James Coomes, Ewing Long, Herbert Epps and Edgar Warren.

A surprise dinner party was given to Mr. R. B. Phillips Monday evening by Mrs. Phillips at their home on Jefferson street near Ninth in celebration of his 40th birthday. A dainty menu was served and the table was decorated in sweet peas. The guests were: Messrs. J. A. Rudy, Richard Rudy, George Wallace, Joseph L. Friedman and Will Webb.

A lawn party was given by the Ramsey Society of the Broadway Methodist church, Tuesday evening at the residence of Mrs. Mildred Davis on Court street, near Seventh. A large crowd was in attendance and a nice sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

The order of the Eastern Star entertained with a social session Wednesday evening at the Masonic hall on North Fourth street. A "peanut walk" formed the diversion for the evening and refreshments were served at Soule's.

Mrs. R. G. Terrell entertained Tuesday morning informally at cards in honor of Mrs. Charles Trueheart of Louisville. The first prize was won by Miss Pollie Ferriman and the guest's prize went to Mrs. Trueheart.

The Presbyterian Sunday schools of the city including that of the First Presbyterian church, Mizpah and Hebron missions went to Almo on the N., C. and St. L. road Wednesday for a picnic.

The Retail Merchants' association celebrated its first anniversary Wednesday evening with a social session at the K. P. hall. Some bright toasts followed an elaborate banquet.

Miss Sammie Wallace entertained a few friends Tuesday evening at her home on Jackson street.

The Grecian club gave a dance Thursday evening at Wallace park pavilion.

A party of the young people of the city had a picnic on the Benton road today.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Mrs. Mattie L. Wilkerson and Mr. R. C. Benner is announced to take place Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Downs, 220 North Seventh street. Mrs. Wilkerson is a young woman of many charms. Mr. Benner is a representative of the New York Life Insurance company in this city. He came here from Pennsylvania a few years ago, and has become very popular in this city. The couple will reside here.

A surprise wedding was that of Miss Maide Bradshaw of this city, and Mr. Frank Murray of Pine Bluff, Ark., which took place in Memphis Monday at noon at the Gayoso hotel. The bride left here Monday morning with her brother, Mr. Miller Bradshaw, and was joined there by the groom. The couple remained in Memphis until Wednesday when they went to Pine Bluff, where they will reside.

Mr. William Grigsby, formerly of this city and now of Lexington, and Miss Bessie Thomas of Louisville, were married in Louisville Tuesday at noon. Mr. E. A. Grigsby, of this city, a brother of the groom, attended the wedding.

Miss Pearl Cook of this city, and Mr. Thomas Clifford, of Marion, were married Tuesday morning at the residence of the bride's parents on South Fourth street. The couple will reside in Marion. Miss Fredonia Sibble and Mr. Maurice M. Henly of Littleville were married Thursday afternoon. Rev. T. J. Owen performed the ceremony.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Happiness is a paradox, because it may co-exist with trial, sorrow and poverty. It is the gladness of the heart—rising superior to all conditions.—William George Jordan.

THE RUSSIAN AFFAIR.

There will likely not be any serious results from the Russian affair. Owing to the stir which has been raised over the petition prepared by Jewish societies of the United States to be sent to the Russian government, the petition will probably not now be sent, and the incident will end. The Russian massacre was a horrible, inexcusable outrage, but apparently it was a local act, and not a national one, and the government having removed the governor of the province, and evinced a determination to punish all those implicated in the carnage, indicates that it regrets it as much as do the humane people of this country.

But however that may be, this government decided, according to reports, that a petition prepared by certain societies would be sent through official channels to Russia. Owing to the rapidity with which news travels in this enlightened age Russia soon became aware of such intention of the United States and in a diplomatic, tactful manner authorized a statement that the Russian government would not regard kindly such a petition. Thus the Russian government knows just as well as if it had the petition itself that the Jews in the United States disapprove of the massacre of their co-religionists in Russia, sympathize with the unfortunates' families and appeal to the government for protection for other Jews in Russia. The United States knows that Russia would regard the petition as extremely indelicate, if not officious, and inasmuch as all concerned know pretty well about what each thinks the matter can well be dropped without saying or doing anything more. It is not believed the Jewish citizens of the United States would desire that this government run the risk of straining its relations with a powerful nation over a petition which could possibly benefit no one. The conclusion of the United States will probably be something similar to that of a prominent diplomat, who is quoted as saying:

"It would be construed as an interference by this government with the internal affairs of Russia. Such interference cannot be defended either by diplomatic usage or international law. It would establish a precedent that would be embarrassing in all future diplomatic relations. Other governments will find warrant in it for making representations to the United States which this country, with its complex government and the peculiar relations which the general government maintains toward the state governments, cannot answer.

"In case foreigners who have espoused citizenship in this country become the victims of mob violence in any of the states foreign governments will be warranted in calling the attention of this government to such outrages, and with the proposed precedent could even go further and suggest immediate remedies, which the federal government, which has delegated the policing power to states, would be unable to enforce."

This is Independence day, the anniversary of our country's birth, and as it is not its first appearance it is pronounced our readers know its meaning and the proper way to celebrate it. At any rate, owing to the hot weather and the desire of our force to get a half holiday, no effusions on the subject of Fourth of July will adorn these columns today. The glorious Fourth comes once a year, and will doubtless be back on time next summer. The most timely admonition is to keep cool and don't fool with the gun that isn't loaded or get in front of one that shoots blank cartridges.

The young men of Maryland have adopted a new method of settling their differences which might be the vogue here in Kentucky if so many firearms were not imported. They fell out at a dance and agreed to meet the next day and fight it out. They met in a field and had 500 interested spectators present to see them pummel each other until one was insensible. The man who got licked was pretty sore at last accounts, but with all that is probably not feeling so bad as a well licked man in Maryland, as he might have felt as a corpse in Kentucky.

The discovery that Gen. Cassius M. Clay, the "sage of Whitehall," is crazy is no discovery at all to many. It has been evident to those who have been reading of his antics for several years past that he was either crazy or just a natural born imbecile. His latest diversion is to send for friends and relatives who live at a distance to come to see him and then not allow them to come near the place after they have traveled many miles at his request.

Good Marksmanship Needed.
In the days of wooden navies and brass cannonades seamanship was everything. The best captain was he who could most skillfully maneuver to bring the enemy within effective range of his guns and put his own ship in a position to rake that of his antagonist. When this had been accomplished the battle turned more on rapidity of fire and weight of metal than on accuracy of aim. Nowadays straight shooting is the sine qua non.

To secure the highest possible efficiency in this respect is a matter of much greater moment than to add battleships to our navy that are not needed and which if poorly manned would be of comparatively little service.

CAIRO STILL LEADS

But Yesterday Paducah Won a Game.

Girard's Home Run With Bases Full
Did the Work—Henderson's Defeat.

HOPTOWN BEATS CLARKSVILLE

Club.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Cairo	26	15	.634
Henderson	22	15	.595
Clarksville	18	16	.529
Jackson	18	17	.514
Paducah	14	20	.412
Hopkinsville	13	25	.342

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

Paducah at Jackson, two games.
Clarksville at Hopkinsville.
Henderson at Cairo, two games.

PADUCAH WON A GAME!

Jackson, Tenn., July 4—Girard won the game for Paducah here yesterday afternoon. He held the home club down to five hits and with three men on bases knocked a home run, giving the Indians a lead that the Jackson boys could not tally. Result, 7 to 4. Paducah made four scores in the third, one in the fifth and two in the sixth, while Jackson made one in each the second, third, seventh and ninth. Batteries, Accorsini and Butler.

HOPTOWN WAKES UP.

Hopkinsville, July 4—The defeat of the home team the day before was discounted yesterday by our own victory over the Clarksville boys by a score of 16 to 1. The Hoptown boys bunched their fifteen hits, while Clarksville could do nothing with the five hits credited to her. The batteries were: Hoptown, Morris and Street; Clarksville, Collins, Reid, Rayen and Holmes.

GEE, LOOK AT CAIRO!

Cairo, July 4—Henderson was shut out again yesterday by the Cairo club by a score of 10 to 0. The heavy batting of Wallace, Cairo's left fielder, was a feature. He made two home runs and a three bagger out of four times at bat. Cairo got 8 hits and 1 error and Henderson 1 hit and 6 errors.

EUREKSA DOWN IN DEFEAT.

In one of the fastest games of the season Ben Boyd's crack colored club was beaten by the East St. Louis aggregation yesterday afternoon by a score of 5 to 3. The time was one hour and twenty minutes, and it is the first out of nine games that the Paducah club has lost.

A LITTLE DOPE.

President Ben Weille has signed Best, a Memphis league pitcher with a good reputation for strike-outs. Best will arrive today or tomorrow and the battery for tomorrow will be Best and Kelly, the latter, the Vincennes catcher, arriving tonight from his home. This will be of interest to the local baseball fans and the fact that a new battery will appear will be sufficient to draw more than the usual attendance.

Perhaps some time in the season the Paducah club will be permanently arranged so the boys can get used to their positions and not be changed about every day. Other clubs in the league are not having to do it, and there is no reason Paducah should.

President Weille has tried to secure good players, and in proof of the fact this morning rendered a check to the telegraph companies to the amount of $50, total for telegrams last month. This looks like business and Paducah will have a team at any cost.

President Weille has not yet heard from Sudhoff relative to sending two pitchers, but states that he has three good ones in mind and will pick the best.

Potts will arrive tonight and appear in tomorrow's game. Sawyer has not agreed to come, but President Weille will hold him to his contract.

Girard is the surest thing Paducah has. He is always good for a hit, and his home run yesterday was the feature of the game.

Cairo must be playing mighty good ball or Henderson, the "top-notchers," might be rotten ball.

If Edmunds goes one of the surest hitters they have will go.

Tomorrow Jackson comes to Paducah for another game.

Mr. Solon L. Palmer, of Benton, is in the city.

THE TRIUMPHS OF PE-RU-NA INCREASE.

Thousands of Chronic Ailments of Women Cured Every Month—Disguised Internal Catarrh the Enemy of Women—Pe-ru-na the Only Internal Systemic Catarrh Remedy Yet Devised—Prominent Cases in Illustration.

Nervous Depression.

Summer months are peculiarly the months of nervous diseases, especially nervous prostration and other depressed states of the nervous system. People who are not at all inclined to be nervous or suffer from weak nerves find this time especially trying. Sultry heat and electrical disturbances of the atmosphere are probably the cause of this.

Invalids need to be particularly careful to fortify the nervous system by the use of Peru-na.

Miss Helen Rolof, Kaukauna, Wis., writes: "Several times during the past two years or more my system has been greatly in need of a tonic, and at those times Peru-na has been of great help in building up the system, restoring my appetite and securing restful sleep. I know a great number of women who are using it for the troubles peculiar to the sex, and with the best results."—Helen Rolof.

MISS LOUISE BERTSEL.

Miss Louise Bertsel, 19½ Second street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "My health was excellent until about six months ago, when I seemed to have a collapse from overdoing socially, and the doctor ordered an entire change of scene and climate. As this was an absolute impossibility at the time, I had to try and regain my health in another way and was induced by a friend, who gave Peru-na such a good recommendation, to try Peru-na. I cannot tell you the condition of my nerves when I began to use it. The least noise irritated me, and I felt that life was not worth living but Peru-na soon changed me into a well woman, and now I do not know I have nerves."—Louise Bertsel.

"A newspaper contributor was lately admitted into the extensive suite of offices which constitute the headquarters of Dr. Hartman, who treats catarrh patients by the thousand. Among the busy swarm of assistant doctors, clerks, stenographers and bookkeepers, Dr. Hartman stopped long enough to say a few words.

"A large number of female patients visit me every day, but the number who are entered on my books as regular patients and are treated by correspondence is very much larger. Hundreds of letters are received and answered free every day. A yet greater multitude take my catarrh remedy, Peru-na, and are cured, of whom I never hear. Some of this latter class write me years after their cure.

"I never allow a name published except by the written consent of the patient. We make no charge at any time. The medicine only is obtained by each patient at his own drug store. Those desiring to become regular patients have only to send address, duration of disease and treatment previously received, and I directions for the first month's treatment it will be sent at once.

Over half the women have catarrh in some form or another. And yet, probably not a tenth of the women know that their disease is catarrh. To distinguish catarrh of various organs it has been named very differently.

One woman has dyspepsia, another bronchitis, another Bright's disease, another liver complaint, another consumption, another female complaint. These women would be very much surprised to hear that they are all suffering with chronic catarrh. But it is so, nevertheless.

MISS JENNIE FINLEY.

Miss Jennie Finley, 79 Madison Street, Memphis, Tenn., a popular young society lady of that place, writes: "Three years ago I had very poor health, and while I was only sick occasionally, I was unable to enjoy life, and lacked vitality and strength. I was an easy subject to cold and malarial fevers. Four bottles of Peru-na changed my entire physical condition. My head stopped aching, my strength returned, and the poison was driven out of my blood till I felt like a new and well woman once more. It is a truly great medicine and well worthy the good things its friends say about it, and it will always have my indorsement."—Jennie Finley.

Each one of these troubles and a great many more are simply catarrh—that is, chronic inflammation of the mucous lining, of which organ is affected. Any internal remedy that will cure catarrh in one location will cure it in any other location. This is why Peru-na has become so justly famous in the cure of female diseases. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures remain. Peru-na does not palliate—it cures.

DIED OF SCALDS

Two Year Old Child Meets Horrible Fate.

A Kettle of Water Accidentally Upset Causes Death.

Zehner Craig, the 2 year old son of Fairfax Craig, died this morning at 5 o'clock at 1018 Court street from being scalded with boiling water Thursday.

A colored nurse had the baby in the kitchen and accidentally upset a kettle of boiling water on the child. His lower limbs and the lower part of his body were severely burned. After suffering great agony death came as a relief to the little one this morning.

The burial will take place in a family cemetery at Woodville this afternoon.

Edward Swift, the 4 months old son of W. R. Swift, died at Sixteenth and Jones streets this morning. The burial will take place at Oak Grove at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

BURIED BY ELKS.

REMAINS OF MAYFIELD BOY RECEIVED FROM ALTON, ILL.

The remains of Vivian Shelton were buried at Mayfield yesterday by the Elks. The young man died from morphine poisoning at Alton, Ill., at the home of his brother, and is supposed to have committed suicide. He asked not to be awakened for dinner if he happened to be asleep, and when discovered was too far gone to be saved. He was quite a popular young man.

WITH THE SICK.

Mr. Farrar Winchester, who for the past year or more has been living in Texas, has been brought back to Paducah and yesterday afternoon was operated on at the I. C. hospital for abdominal abscess growth. His condition is serious but it is believed he will recover.

The little daughter of Mr. George McDowell, of Broad street, is quite sick.

Something New.

We have placed a piano in our Music Department for the benefit and convenience of our customers.

We have all the late, new and popular music and extend you a cordial invitation to try the pieces before you buy.

Wasn't Acquainted.

"Waiting in the bank directly in front of me was a charming woman of twenty or so who was having her first experience in banking," said the merchant as he lighted his cigar after luncheon. "She was asked the questions usual for one who is opening an account; her name, address, whether married or single and her father's and mother's name. She got along all right until the clerk asked: 'Mother's maiden name, please.' 'I don't quite understand, I'm afraid,' she said hesitatingly. 'I mean your mother's name when she was a girl,' explained the clerk. 'How should I know? I don't like impertinence, Sir! How should I know? I didn't know her when she was a girl. The idea! Are you trying to make fun of me, Sir?'—New York Times.

WHEN BABY IS COMING USE Mother's Friend

Woman's greatest dream of beauty and glory is when nature has chosen her to become a mother. Every faculty is keenly alert as she foresees the joy, ambition, success and the life-long satisfaction coming nearer, day by day, in the dear and innocent being so soon to see light, and the uncertainty whether she shall see a sweet girl or a brave boy face beside her on the pillow adds zest to her expectancy. Mother's Friend applied externally throughout pregnancy will relieve the pain of parturition, and no mother and child can fail to be healthy, hearty, strong, clear complexioned, pure blooded and cheerful in disposition, who are mutually influenced by the continued use of this great liniment, MOTHER'S FRIEND. Theatrical Notes.

Mart W. Hanley, who was the manager for Harrigan and Hart when they were at the height of their popularity in New York, and who was the manager and partner of Robert Mantell for the past seven years, has dissolved his partnership with that actor.

Mrs. Patrick Campbell will appear at Wyndham's theater, London, in "The Joy of Living," under the management of Charles Frohman. Martin Harvey, whose new play, "The Exiles," was a failure, has been engaged by Mr. Frohman to support Mrs. Campbell.

Forbes Robertson and Gertrude E. Lott will begin their American tour in Kipling's "The Light That Failed," at Buffalo, N. Y., on September 21. The dramatization which they will use was made by Constance Fletcher, whose nom de plume is George Fleming.

Grace George and her husband, William A. Brady, with their infant son, are in Europe. Owing to certain repairs and improvements that have been ordered by the department of buildings, Miss George will not be able to open at the Madison Square theater in "Pretty Peggy" as early as was at first intended.

True S. James, who has written a domestic play of Colorado entitled "The Garden of the Gods," will be starred in that play during the coming season under the management of Mr. Hanley. The scenic effects will be unusually beautiful.

Mr. James was married on June 17 to Miss Grace Turner, of Evansville, Ind., so he will enter upon his career as a star and a benedict at about the same time.

The new play is said to tell a charming story, with humor and heart interest well blended.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

Huntington, Ind., by some of their young friends at the home of their uncle, Rev. B. F. Wulman on the South Side Tuesday. The young ladies left Thursday for Cincinnati.

The Merry-makers' club will be entertained Wednesday evening by Miss Louise Detzel at her home 719 Madison street at cards.

PERSONAL.

Miss Kate Hayes, of Dyersburg, Tenn., is the guest of Miss May Hayes.

Mrs. Thomas C. Leech left yesterday to spend the summer in Montreal, Canada, her former home.

Mr. T. J. Flournoy will leave next week for Tennessee to join a party and will leave July 16 for a trip abroad.

Mrs. W. D. Greer and daughters, Mrs. Charles Moequot and Miss Myrtle Greer, left this week for Petoskey, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Alben Barkley returned Wednesday from their wedding trip to the Tennessee mountains and are at home to their friends at the residence of Mrs. J. R. Cobourne, 414 Washington street.

Misses Robbie Loving, Lillie May Winstead, Blanch Hills and Mary Scott left Friday for Paris, Tenn., to attend a house party to be given by Miss Louise Dumas. The young ladies will go from Paris to Hinson Springs to attend another house party.

The contemplated removal of Dr. and Mrs. Warwick M. Cowgill and sons William and Allen, to Lincoln, Nebraska, to reside, will be regretted by their many friends in this city. Mrs. Cowgill is prominent in social, church and club circles and will be greatly missed. Dr. Cowgill will go to Nebraska in a few days and if he is satisfied with the location, his family will soon follow him.

The Nashville Banner of Thursday contains an interesting account of the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp, near Nashville, which Master Vaughan Dabney of this city, joined. The camp is situated on Caney Fork river, on a high bluff, surrounded by beautiful scenery and affords opportunities for bathing, boating and fishing and other diversions which appeal especially to boys. The camp opened Thursday and will last until Saturday July 11.

Champion "Square" Man. George Morrish of Holbrook comes mighty near being a square man. It is said that he measures 4 feet 10 inches from the top of his head to the point of his big toe, and 4 feet 10 inches around his body at what soldiers term the salient point.

Little Child Carried Off by Animal and Put to Bed.

An extraordinary but apparently well-authenticated story of a bear's freak comes from a Russian village in the district of Odoff. The village lies on the fringe of a forest, whence it is of frequent occurrence for bears to make prowling excursions both by day and night into the adjacent settlements. Some two weeks ago two young girls, aged respectively 5 and 13, were surprised by a huge bear at a short distance from the village. The animal seized and carried off the younger child, while the elder, terror-stricken, fled home and gave the not unusual alarm.

An immediate pursuit was instituted and the search was continued during the evening and the next day, but without result. On the third day, with the assistance of neighboring villagers, a wide cordon was drawn around an extensive tract of the forest, and the searchers closed in. Toward sundown the bear and her booty were discovered in a dense thicket. The child was perfectly unharmed, says the London Mail, and reclining in a deep mossy couch made for her by the bear.

GRAUSTARK

...By...
GEORGE BARR MCCUTCHEON

Copyright, 1901, by Herbert S. Stone

"There was one other condition," said Boleroz hastily, unable to gloat as he had expected. "The recapture of the assassin who slew my son would have meant much to Graustark. It is unfortunate that your police department is so inefficient." Dangloss withered beneath this thrust. Yette's eyes went to him for an instant sorrowfully. Then they dropped to the fatal document which Gaspon had placed on the table before her. The lines ran together and were the color of blood. Unconsciously she took the pen in her nerveless fingers. A deep sob came from the breast of her gray old uncle, and Gaspon's hand shook like a leaf as he placed the seal of Graustark on the table, ready for use.

"I have the prisoner, your highness."

"The assassin's life could have saved you," went on Boleroz, a vengeful glare coming to his eyes. She looked up and her lips moved as if she would have spoken. No words came, no breath, it seemed to her. Casting a piteous, hunted glance over the faces before her, she bent forward and blindly touched the pen to the paper. The silence was that of death. Before she could make the first stroke a harsh voice, in which there was combined triumph and amazement, broke the stillness like the clanging of a bell.

"Have you no honor?" The pen dropped from her fingers as the expected condemnation came. In sheer desperation, her eyes flashing with the intensity of defiant guilt, bitter rage welling up against her persecutor, she half arose and cried: "Who uttered those words? Speak!" "I, Gabriel of Dawsberg! Where is the prisoner, madam?" rang out the voice.

"The man is mad!" cried she, sinking back with a shudder. "Mad, eh? Because I do as I did promise? Behold the queen of perfidy! Madam, I will be heard. Lorry is in this castle!"

"He is mad!" gasped Boleroz, the first of the stunned spectators to find his tongue. There was a commotion near the door. Voices were heard outside. "You have been duped!" insisted Gabriel, taking several steps toward the throne. "Your idol is a traitress, a deceiver! I say he is here! She has seen him! Let her sign that decree if she dares! I command you, Yette of Graustark, to produce this criminal!"

The impulse to crush the deceiver was checked by the sudden appearance of two men inside the curtains. "He is here!" cried a strong voice, and Lorry, breathless and haggard, pushed through the astonished crowd, followed by Captain Quinnox, upon whose ghastly face there were blood stains.

A shout went up from those assembled, a shout of joy. The faces of Dangloss and Allode were pictures of astonishment and, it must be said, relief. Harry Anguish staggered, but recovered himself instantly and turned his eyes toward Gabriel. That worthy's legs trembled and his jaw dropped.

"I have the prisoner, your highness," said Quinnox in hoarse, discordant tones. He stood before the throne with his captive, but dared not look his mistress in the face. As they stood there the story of the night just passed was told by the condition of the two men. There had been a struggle for supremacy in the dungeon, and the prisoner had won. The one had tried to hold the other to the dungeon's safety after his refusal to leave the castle, and the other had fought his way to the halls above. It was then that Quinnox had wit enough to change front and drag his prisoner to the place which, most of all, he had wished to avoid.

"The prisoner!" shouted the northern nobles, and in an instant the solemn throne room was wild with excitement. "Do not sign that decree!" cried some one from a far corner. "Here is your man, Prince Boleroz!" cried a baron.

"Quinnox has saved us!" shouted another. The princess, white as death and as motionless, sat bolt upright in her royal seat. "Oh!" she moaned piteously, and, clinching her hands, she carried them to her eyes as if to shut out the sight. The Countess Halfont and Dagmar ran to her side, the latter frantic with alarm. She knew more than the others.

"Are you the fugitive?" cried Boleroz. "I am Grenfall Lorry. Are you Boleroz?"

"The father of the man you murdered. Ah, this is rapture!" "I have only to say to your highness I did not kill your son. I swear it, so help me God!"

"Your highness," cried Boleroz, stepping to the throne, "destroy that decree. This brave soldier has saved Graustark. In an hour your ministers and mine will have drawn up a ten years' extension of time, in proper form, to which my signature shall be gladly attached. I have not forgotten my promise."

Yette straightened suddenly, seized the pen and fiercely began to sign the decree in spite of all and before those about her fairly realized her intention. Lorry understood and was the first to snatch the document from her hands. A half written Yette, a blot and a long, splintering scratch of the pen told how near she had come to signing away the lands of Graustark, forgetful of the fact that it could be of no benefit to the prisoner she loved.

"Yette!" gasped her uncle in horror. "She would have signed," cried Gaspon in wonder and alarm.

"Yes, I would have signed!" she exclaimed, starting to her feet, strong and defiant. "I could not have saved his life, perhaps, but I might have saved him from the cruel injustice that that man's vengeance would have invented. He is innocent, and I would give my kingdom to stay the wrong that will be done."

"What! You defend the dog?" cried Boleroz. "Seize him, men! I will see that justice is done. It is no girl he has to deal with now."

"Stop!" cried the princess, the command checking the men. Quinnox leaped in front of his charge. "He is my prisoner, and he shall have justice. Keep back your soldiery, Prince Boleroz. It is a girl you have to deal with. I will say to you all, my people and yours, that I believe him to be innocent and that I sincerely regret his capture, fortunate as it may be for us. He shall have a fair and a just trial, and I shall do all in my power, Prince Boleroz, to secure his acquittal."

"Why do you take this stand, Yette? Why have you tried to shield him?" cried the heart broken Halfont. She drew herself to her full height, and, sweeping the threatening crowd with a challenge in her eyes, cried, the tones ringing strong and clear above the growing tumult: "Because I love him!"

As if by magic the room became suddenly still. "Behold an honest man. I would have saved him at the cost of my honor. Scorn me if you will, but listen to this: The man who stands here accused came voluntarily to this castle, surrendering himself to Captain Quinnox that he might, though innocent, stand between us and disaster. He was safe from our pursuit, yet returned, perhaps to his death. For me, for you and for Graustark he has done this. Is there a man among you who would have done as much for his own country? Yet he does this for a country to which he is stranger. I must commit him to prison once more. But," she cried in sudden fierceness, "I promise him now, before the trial, a royal pardon. Do I make my meaning clear to you, Prince Boleroz?"

The white lips of the old prince could frame no reply to this daring speech.

"Be careful what you say, your highness!" cried the prisoner hastily. "I must refuse to accept a pardon at the cost of your honor. It is because I love you better than my life that I stand here. I cannot allow you and your people to suffer when it is in my power to prevent it. All that I can ask is fairness and justice. I am not guilty, and God will protect me. Prince Boleroz, I call upon you to keep your promise. I am not the slayer of your son, but I am the man you would send to the block, guilty or innocent."

As he spoke the princess dropped back in the chair, her rash courage gone. A stir near the doorway followed his concluding sentence, and the other American stepped forward, his face showing his excitement. "Your highness," he said, "I should have spoken sooner. My lips were parted and ready to cry out when Prince Gabriel interposed and prevented the signing of the decree. Grenfall Lorry did not kill the young prince. I can produce the guilty man!"

CHAPTER XXVI.

THE GUESSING OF ANGUISH.

THE startling assertion created a fresh sensation. Sensations had come so thick and so fast, however, that they seemed component parts of one grand, bewildering climax. The new actor in the drama held the center of the stage undisputed. "Harry!" cried Lorry. "Prince Gabriel, why do you shake like a leaf? Is it because you know what I am going to say?" exclaimed Anguish, pointing his finger accusingly at the astonished Prince of Dawsberg.

gen. Gabriel's lips parted, but nothing more than a gasp escaped them. Involuntarily his eyes sought the door, then the windows, the peculiar, uncontrollable look of the hunted coming into them. Boleroz allowed his gaze to leap instantly to that pallid face, and every eye in the room followed. Yette was standing again, her face glowing. "An accomplice has confessed all. I have the word of the man who saw the crime committed. I charge Prince Gabriel with the murder of his highness Prince Lorenz."

With a groan Gabriel threw his hands to his heart and tottered forward, glaring at the merciless face of the accuser.

"Confessed! Betrayed!" he faltered. Then he whirled like a madman upon his little coterie of followers. "Vile traitor!" he shrieked. "I will drink your heart's blood!"

With a howl he leaped toward one of the men, a dark faced nobleman named Berrowag. The latter evaded him and rushed toward the door, crying:

"It is a lie, a lie! He has tricked you! I did not confess!"

The prince was seized by his friends, struggling and cursing. A peculiar smile lit up the face of Harry Anguish. "I repeat, he is the assassin!"

Gabriel broke from the detaining hands and, drawing a revolver, rushed for the door.

"Out of the way! I will not be taken alive!"

Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms, Baron Dangloss and others tearing the Allode met him at the curtains and grasped him in his powerful arms. weapon from his hand. The utmost confusion reigned—women screaming, men shouting—and above all could be heard the howls of the accused prince. "Let me go! Curse you! Curse you! I will not surrender! Let me kill that traitor! Let me at him!" Berrowag had been seized by willing hands, and the two men glared at each other, one crazy with rage, the other shrinking with fear.

Dangloss and Allode half carried, half dragged the prince forward. As he neared Boleroz and the princess he collapsed and became a trembling, moaning suppliant for mercy. Anguish's accusation had struck home.

"Prince Boleroz, I trust you will not object if the Princess Yette substitutes the true assassin for the man named in your promise to Graustark," said Anguish dramatically. Boleroz, as if coming from a dream, turned and knelt before the throne.

"Most adorable Yette," he said, "I sue for pardon. I bow low and lay my open heart before the truest woman in the world." He kissed the black lace hem of her gown and arose. "I am your friend and ally. Asaph and Graustark will live no more with hatred in their hearts. From you I have learned a lesson in justice and constancy."

Prince Gabriel was raving like a madman as the officers hurried him and Berrowag from the room. A shout went up from those assembled. Its echo, reaching the halls, then the gardens, was finally taken up by the waiting masses beyond the gates. The news flew like wildfire. Rejoicing such as had never been known shook Edelweiss until the monks on the mountain looked down in wonder.

After the dazed and happy throng about the throne had heaped its expressions of love and devotion upon the radiant princess a single figure knelt in submission just as she was preparing to depart. It was the Duke of Mizrox.

"Your royal highness, Mizrox is ready to pay his forfeit. My life is yours," he said calmly. She did not comprehend until her uncle reminded her of the oath Mizrox had taken the morning after the murder.

"He swore on his life that you killed Lorenz," she said, turning to Lorry. "I was wrong, but I am willing to pay the penalty. My love for Lorenz was greater than my discretion. That is my only excuse, but it is one you should not accept," said Mizrox, as coolly as if announcing the time of day. Lorry looked first at him and then at the princess, bewildered and uncertain. "I have no ill will against you, my lord duke. Release him from his bond, your highness."

"Gladly, since you refuse to hold him to his oath," she said.

"I am under an eternal obligation to you, sir, for your leniency, and I shall ever revere the princess who pardons so graciously the gravest error."

Correct Summer Clothing The Kind That Won't Lose Shape

Did you ever notice how quick thin clothing loses its shape? It's because it is not made right. We overcome that fault in our Correct Summer Clothing—we've had it made a new way. The coats have a full shoulder, with hair-cloth stiffening down the front, that keeps them from breaking or losing shape. The pants have cuff bottoms, concealed buttons and felt straps, the cloth is thoroughly shrunk which overcomes bagging at the knee. There's no clothing like it for fit and style in Paducah. Board of Education to Hold Meeting Tuesday Next.

Trustees Ben Weible and Sam Jackson, who were last night called upon to resign from the board of education by the Good Government league on account of their connection with the Sunday games of the Paducah Baseball association, were inclined to treat the matter as a joke when seen by a reporter this morning.

One said that the 100 or more members of the Good Government league may imagine they are better qualified to run the town than the officials who have been elected to do it, or than any of the four or five thousand voters who do not belong to the league, but that so far as they are concerned as trustees they will continue to hold office the same as if there was no such thing as the league.

A meeting of the board of education will be held Tuesday evening at which a number of matters deferred at the last meeting will be taken up and disposed of in some manner. The repairs on the public school buildings and the appointment of a superintendent of buildings in order that the cost of keeping the buildings in repair may be reduced will be settled, but teachers are not to be assigned until the meeting in August.

DELEGATES BACK

Successful Missionary Meeting at Dyersburg Over.

Reports Showed the Year's Work to Have Been Very Successful.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Memphis conference, which convened in the Methodist church at Dyersburg, Tenn., Tuesday evening, closed Friday. Mrs. A. F. Covington and Miss Jessie Byrd, who were delegates from Paducah, returned home today. Master Ben Griffith, who was a delegate from the juvenile missionary society, came home yesterday. Mrs. T. J. Newell, who also attended from here, will visit in West Tennessee before returning.

The annual address of the president, Mrs. Watson, showed that the heart of the speaker was in the work and it was fitting that she should urge her co-workers to go forward with the cause they espouse, for she has been leading them almost ever since the organization.

The report of Miss Laura Bradford, conference corresponding secretary, was a complete resume of the year's work, and it contained a great many interesting facts in connection with the foreign missionary work. In closing she told of twenty women in one of the Georgia conferences who had pledged themselves to support a missionary in the foreign field, and she begged the women of the Memphis conference to be up and doing and see if they too could not band a few together and support a missionary. She spoke with so much force and feeling that she had scarcely ceased when Mrs. T. W. Neal of Dyersburg volunteered to be one of thirty to assume the charge for a number of years, and others pledged in quick succession. The entire thirty will no doubt pledge themselves shortly.

The report of the conference treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Ottinger, showed the financial condition of the conference, and over $4,000 was raised during the past year. The Memphis district led in collections, with $1,412.90, and the Butler Van Guards of First church, Memphis, led in the young people's societies.

Two missionary candidates were present, Miss Cordelia Erwin and Miss Elizabeth Claiborne.

Invitations were extended for the conference for next year to meet at Jackson, Tenn., Murray and Paducah.

The annual sermon was preached by the Rev. Seth Ward of Nashville.

In proportion to population more patents are issued to citizens of the District of Columbia than to those of any other state. A recent compilation showed that Tennessee was at the foot of the list.

By "X-Rays."

Just for once won't you try a pair of shoes that are not made from guesswork measurements of what your foot ought to be, but from "X-ray" photographs of what women's feet really are?

The "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is exactly shaped to the bones, muscles, and ligaments of the foot, as they are plainly revealed by "X-ray" photograph. This is the explanation of why you hear so much talk on all sides about the wonderful "Dorothy Dodd." The shoe deserves its popular nickname of "an arrangement in comfort." But all this is of no help to you unless you own a pair. On the day you buy them you will learn a new lesson in Foot Comfort.

After that, no one can tell you any other shoe but a "Dorothy Dodd."

Sincerely yours,

DOROTHY DODD.

TO USE TELEPHONES

A Chicago Dispatch Says the Illinois Central Will Adopt Them.

Train Orders Are to Be Communicated and All Official Reports Sent.

MANY ADVANTAGES ARE CLAIMED

Today's Chicago Record-Herald says: "The Illinois Central railroad will, within the course of a short while, have all the principal stations along its lines completely equipped with telephone wires for the use of officials and employees in transmitting orders and messages of the company."

"Those who have experimented with the system claim for it many great advantages over the old telegraph system. They assert that by means of the telephone system the service will be practically revolutionized. They say that with slight improvements, which are inevitable, the telephone will furnish greater safety for train orders, that the cost of train operation will be decreased, and the results obtained made vastly better, and that no less important is the constant personal contact between officials and employees, which, the promoters say, is certain to result in a higher grade of service."

"The change on the Illinois Central will be gradual. The installation of the new system will cost about $100 per mile, or approximately $50,000 to equip the entire road, including its main branch and the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road. Chicago will probably be the starting place. Almost simultaneously, however, work will be commenced at New Orleans and St. Louis. From these three centers a two-wire line will be extended to the principal points, until every station in the entire system is included."

Local officials have heard nothing official thus far.

OF POST A.

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO PADUCAH MEMBERS OF THE T. P. A.

(Louisville Commercial)

The immaculate Charlie Spillman, of Post A, Paducah, is now working in the lower portion of grand old Kentucky, in the interest of Riecke and Son. Now, when you meet Charlie you are with one of the finest. He was never known to have a particle of dust on his garments, which are made by the finest tailor's art, and fit him as if they were run on hot. Charlie has a cute way of adjusting his eye glasses which is very catchy. He has the most exquisite manners, and is a perfect Chesterfield, and his conversational powers have no limit. When you see him have him relate his Mexican trip, and you will be doubly paid.

Duff Grouse, of Post A, Paducah, is another wheel horse in the T. P. A. organization, and his work is felt from the fact that he works in the interest of everything that is beneficial to the organization at large. Now, it is not every member who can work on the line of new members, but their work in other directions is as beneficial, and perhaps more so, than those who swell the membership roll. As we look at it from both points, think the one who works for the advancement of its membership from a social standpoint is doing a grand good service.

When you meet L. S. Du Bois of Post A, Paducah, you can talk drugs with him to your heart's content, for he is full of it, and delights in the fact that his store is the best arranged wholesale drug house in the country, and he never tires of telling about its beauty. "L. S." is a great hustler, and works hard not only for his house but for the T. P. A.

NEEDED THE LIGHT

In a little town not far from one of the largest of American cities is a fire department in which the citizens take great pride. It is composed wholly of volunteer, and at the first alarm the force assembles so hurriedly that the equipment is not always complete.

Not long ago a fire broke out at midnight. When the department arrived only one lantern could be found. The smoke was pouring out of the building, but no flame appeared, and the night was very dark. Finally a column of flame shot out at one corner of the building, and the crowd cheered as the man at the nozzle directed a stream of water toward it. At this crisis the excited captain, realizing the emergency, shouted:

"Be careful what you're doing man! Keep the water off that blaze! Don't you see that's the only light we've got to put out the fire by?"

115 YEARS OLD.

Massac County Negro Who Can Prove His Old Age.

In August He Will Be 116 Years Old If He Lives.

Over in Massac county, Ill., there resides one of the most remarkable negroes in the United States. Next August he will be 115 years old, and can prove it. His name is Henry Morris, and his home is in what is known as "Black Bottoms."

The Metropolis Herald says of him: "The remarkable thing about this old man is that he is one hundred and fifteen years of age, and if he lives till next August he will have passed his one hundred and sixteenth birthday milestone. A still more remarkable thing is that he has positive proof of his age."

"He was on Upper Market street Thursday afternoon for several hours, and was the center of an interested crowd of spectators continually. He likes to talk of his age, and is proud of the distinction it gives him."

"Morris is a medium sized man, gray headed, and of course old looking, but no one would suspect that he is over seventy-five. He is spry as a man of thirty, almost, and when asked if he could get around lively, he replied by hanting some of the younger colored men sitting near for a foot race. Not more than three years ago he walked from Unionville to Metropolis, and made as good time as any ordinary young man would make."

"It is not, unusual for old colored men to claim great age, but they are usually unable to substantiate the claim with any proof. This is where Morris is different. He has letters from his old master's people, who lived back in Virginia, giving the date of his birth. A copy of the record of the birth of all the slaves of his master, kept in an old Bible, was sent him some years ago at his request, and he also has that. All of this proof leaves little room to doubt that the old man is actually 115 years old, as he claims."

ELOPED TO METROPOLIS

Miss Julia, the 15 year old daughter of Mrs. Mary Craft, of Fourth and Norton streets, and Mr. Benjamin Floyd, of South Third street, eloped to Metropolis Saturday afternoon on the Cowling and were married shortly after their arrival. The groom is a man of 50 years and on this account the mother of the bride objected to the match. When the mother learned of the intended wedding she went to Captain Bailey of the local night force, and had him telephone to Metropolis to have the marriage stopped. The telephone message came too late as the couple had been married half an hour.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, engineer, L. E. & W. R. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He writes: "I was cured by using Foley's Kidney Cure, which I recommend to all, especially trainmen who are usually similarly afflicted."

MAYFIELD WEDDINGS

Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 20.—Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of J. Wiltz Beadles, a wealthy young society man of this place, and Miss Ella Wingate, of Midway, Ky. Thomas Hunt, a former resident of this city and a brother of Miss Sue Hunt, was married on the 15th of this month at Atlanta, Ga., to Miss Julia Evalyne Moreland, a popular young lady of that city.

'Twill BE GRAND

High Honors to Be Shown Prince Henry, of Prussia.

The President and Cabinet Will Arrange the Details For the Two Weeks Stay.

PRINCE MAY MAKE FLYING TOUR

Washington, Jan. 18.—An elaborate reception and entertainment is assured Prince Henry of Prussia when he comes to this country to the christening of the Emperor's yacht. The formalities have been discussed by the cabinet, and precedents in the case of the visits of the Prince of Wales and the Grand Duke Alexis of Russia have been carefully looked up and will be followed where applicable. The program, as far as agreed upon, is as follows:

Upon the arrival of Prince Henry in New York he will be met by a squadron under the command of Rear Admiral Evans, and national salutes of twenty-one guns will be fired, both by the warships and by the shore batteries. Visits of courtesy will be made upon the prince by the commander of the department of the East, and the ranking naval officer at New York, and Assistant Secretary of State Hill. The prince will also formally welcome the ambassador. According to precedent, it will be the duty of the prince to call upon the President, who will return the visit. A dinner will be given at the White House in the prince's honor. The details of the program will be worked out at the state department.

It was decided that an arrangement for Prince Henry's reception should be committed to a special committee, composed of David Jayne Hill, representing the state department; Major-General Harry C. Corbin, representing the United States army; Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, representing the navy, and Count Von Quadt-Wykradt, the consul and first secretary of the German embassy. Colonel Theodore A. Bingham of the engineer corps, will assist General Corbin in the execution of the details, and other army officers will be detailed as necessary. The day following Prince Henry's arrival at New York will be Sunday. It will probably not be deemed well for the prince and his party to travel on Sunday, hence he can not start for Washington on that day to pay his visit to President Roosevelt, for etiquette of such ceremonies requires the first call to be made by the visitor.

Pressure is being brought to bear by nearly all the large cities of the country to secure the presence therein of Prince Henry, and, after the conclusion of the launching ceremonies, the Prince may make a rapid tour through the country, going as far west, perhaps, as St. Louis. In case this plan is executed, the itinerary probably will be arranged to allow the prince to see the American cities having the largest population of German extraction.

William Wallace Downey, a member of the firm building Emperor William's yacht, called at the White House today, and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launching, went to the state department and talked over details of the program with Assistant Secretary Hill, Admiral Evans and Admiral Crowsfield. The launching will occur at 10:30 a. m., February 20. The President expressed the most lively satisfaction at the decision of the German Emperor to send his brother, Prince Henry, as his personal representative at the ceremony, and has entered with great interest into the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Prince Henry probably will reach Washington Sunday morning, and will rest quietly at the embassy that day. An effort is making to arrange matters so that the prince shall be present at the capitol when the Senate and House meet on February 27, to hear Secretary Hay deliver his memorial address in honor of the late President McKinley.

There is little doubt that the prince will be able to accept some of the invitations tendered by various cities. The committee here will arrange a program which will take the visitor as far west as St. Louis, and it is possible that Charleston will be included in the return trip, as the expedition authorities have made a strong plea for his presence there. Niagara Falls also may be taken in on the outward trip. The state department has been notified that the prince's American visit will last only sixteen days in all, as he will sail for Germany on the Columbia on March 8. Realizing that the people who hope to entertain the prince in other cities must have time for preparation, the committee will use their cable freely in communicating with Prince Henry and announce the details as fast as they arrive.

John Winfrey and "Yallerdam" Smith have resigned as pilots on the Charleston.

The Charleston leaves tomorrow 5 p. m. for Clifton, Tenn., taking in all way landings.

The Dick Fowler departed for Cairo this morning with a big trip of people and considerable freight.

The big battleship Illinois has just come out of the floating dry dock at the New Orleans naval station, having successfully demonstrated the possibilities of that structure.

On account of the ice in the river the New South will not leave for New Orleans today, but will go next Wednesday morning, if ice disappears and weather is favorable.

The City of Pittsburgh had four families from Bullitt county, eleven persons in all, en route to new homes in Arkansas and Missouri. They were: W. H. and Peter Slader and J. Howell, of near Lebanon Junction, and B. F. Estes, of Capito.

The City of Pittsburgh, from Cincinnati, passed down for Memphis. She put off 700 cases of beer, a lot of slot machines and twenty barrels of whiskey for the Island Queen, which leaves here this week for New Orleans, to go in the excursion business.

Three big river meetings were held in this country last Wednesday: The U. S. Supervising Inspectors of Steam Vessels and Grand Harbor of American Association of Masters and Pilots in Washington and the Keepers of Life Saving Stations of the Tenth U. S. district in Buffalo.

Responding to an inquiry from Donaldsonville, La., the Louisville Post says, that among the most noted steamers that ever run from New Orleans to the upper bends were the Princess, Magenta, Duncan F. Kenner, Capital, Charnier, Vicksburg, Southern Belle, Gen. John A. Quitman, the race horse Natches, the John W. Cannon and Oliver Byrne. Many other very fine boats ran there but cannot now be recalled. When the war of '61 began Memphis had a fine line of steamers to New Orleans.

The rough edges of the great war were not worn off when the first steamer bearing the name Robert E. Lee was built at New Albany, and when it was whispered that she was to be christened in honor of the Confederate chieftain somebody started the rumor she would be burned if a painter wrote the name across her wheelhouses, says the Louisville Post. When the time arrived to do this work she was dropped across the river to the Portland wharf, where she was completed. This was the "famous" Robert E. Lee, and after her life ended some time elapsed before the next boat bearing the name was built at Howard's. She, too, proved to be a hummer when it came to running. Then a number of years elapsed before the present Robert E. Lee was built, this last one for the Lee line of Memphis being named for Captain Robert E. Lee, general superintendent of that corporation, who, himself, was named for the illustrious Gen. Robert E. Lee.

BANNS PUBLISHED.

MISS MAUDE PHELPS AND MR. JOHN SCHROEDER TO MARRY FEBRUARY 11.

The bans were yesterday announced in the St. Francis de Sales church of Miss Maude Phelps and Mr. John Schroeder, who will marry on the morning of February 11th at the Catholic parsonage, and go to Nashville on a bridal tour. Miss Phelps has for the past two years been a deputy in City Tax Collector Wm. Kraus' office, at the city hall, and is a young lady esteemed by all who know her for her many excellent qualities, and of more charming personality. Mr. Schroeder is an employee of the Illinois Central, and is a highly respected and popular young man.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS.

THEY HAVE TWO MORE DISTRICTS TO CANVASS.

The supervisors of the county tax books have been in session twelve days, and today began canvassing the last two districts, Nos. 3 and 4, the largest in the county. They should finish by Wednesday, but it is probable they will not. The allotted time is ten days, but County Judge Lightfoot extended it five days, and these will expire Wednesday.

LOVE AND THE MODERN NOVEL.

Courting Stories to Be Connected with Modern Interests.

The love theme, traditionally so central, and illuminating the course of English fiction from Fielding to Meredith, will be in the future, not eliminated, but handled in conjunction with and subordinate to the modern interests which have so vastly extended the content of the novel in our time. Or is it sanner prophecy to declare that by a natural law of reaction, the novelist of the dawning century will come back to the older assumption, reinstating the love that is, after all, the light of life in its old-fashionedness? One consideration makes this dubious. The shifted place of the love motive in the social milieu. She is no longer reared to regard marriage as the sole vocation. The daughters of well-to-do and cultured folk are not infrequently educated nowadays with an eye to self-supporting work. Even if parental encouragement lack, modern girls in increasing numbers are ambitious to achieve in some field of endeavor. The spinster of today no longer sits with folded hands by the lonely hearth, sadly reminiscent, knitting her empty, regret her mood. She turns artist, house decorator, architect, teacher, actor, musician, nurse, writer, physician or lawyer. She looks to the future, not to the past—Richard Burton in the Book Buyer.

MAGNIFICENT IMPERIAL GIFT.

Work of Art to Be Presented by Kaiser.

Herr Otto Roloff, teacher at the Arts and Crafts school here, has executed a magnificent centerpiece epergne at the express desire and after the design of the emperor, who intends it as a gift to King Edward. In the center is an enormous silver gilt bottle-shaped top-piece, one meter in height, with a diameter of twenty centimeters, made after the model of the famous epergne of King Frederick the First in the royal palace. Round the centerpiece between chased laurel wreaths, runs a circlet with the inscription in English: "Emperor William II. to King Edward VII." On both sides of the circlet are heads of lions, with rings in their jaws to serve as handles. The base of the centerpiece is beautifully decorated with chased and embossed work, representing scythian and Indian leaves and festoons, as is also the stopper of the decanter, which represents the king's crown. The centerpiece stands upon a wooden socle adorned with silver gilt rosettes. The entire piece lies between a curious arrangement of corbels shaped grotesquely with embossed floral ornamentation. Each corbel is of gilded bronze differently cut and ornamented. In the center of each corbel is a cartouch, upon which are alternately engraved the monogram and arms of King Edward, over which is the royal crown. It is stated that since the eighteenth century no such exquisite and artistic workmanship has been seen in Berlin.—Berlin Correspondence London Times.

May Lose Collections.

Several important scientific institutions in the East are in danger of having valuable collections confiscated by the government. So intimates S. J. Holsinger, a special agent of the Interior Department, who has technical possession of all the Indian ruins in Arizona and New Mexico, which, with their relics, he holds for the government. Valuable collections of pottery and other relics from these reservations have been secured by several museums, sometimes through unauthorized parties. Mr. Holsinger says, but it answers the purpose for which it was intended.—New York Press.

Norwegians Are Superstitious. Like the Japanese, the Norwegians are very superstitious and, as in Japan, the forests, the mountains and gorges are peopled with fairies. Sen is the good fairy of the Norwegians. He looks after the cattle pastures, and if he is well treated they are healthy, and the cow gives lots of milk. To propitiate him it is necessary to put a dish of porridge on the threshold of the cow stable on Christmas morning. Whenever the family moves, this invisible being goes along with them, and sits on the top of the loads.

Hornets Chase a Preacher. At Derby, Conn., the other day, a leading pastor ran madly through the village and disappeared in the woods. A swarm of hornets had nested in the clergyman's rural free delivery mailbox. Two miles away the chase ended by the pastor plunging into the reservoir.

IT IS A GO.
CONTRACTOR KATTERJOHN GETS THE BIG ILLINOIS CENTRAL CONTRACT.

Mr. F. W. Katterjohn, as stated yesterday, secured the $1,500,000 contract mentioned yesterday as having been let by the Illinois Central, and came to Chicago today to have the papers signed up. He will purchase, before he begins work about $40,000 worth of the latest improved machinery, and will be called to every part of the vast Illinois Central system when he begins.

The class of work will include nearly every part of road improvement except bridge and track building, and the letting of such a vast contract to Mr. Katterjohn speaks well for his ability. While he will be kept away from Paducah a great deal of the time during the five years the contract runs, his family will remain here, and this will be his home.

TO PURCHASE MACHINERY.
FORMER MAYOR LANG TO ADD A LABORATORY TO HIS DRUG STORE.

Former Mayor James M. Lang leaves tomorrow for Memphis and New Orleans to purchase machinery for a laboratory he is to add to Lang Brothers' drug store. It will be placed in the second story, and be used in the manufacture of the remedies that are made by the firm.

Dr. Lang stated that he had neglected his business for the past four years, while mayor, and had to catch up. "I have always heard," he said, "that when a man once got into public life he was ever afterwards fishing for further public honors. I am going to prove that there are exceptions to the rule. I am going to settle down to business and stay there."

LODGE OF BUFFALOES.
THEY HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED IN MANY OF THE CITIES.

Some time during the early part of last spring the order of Buffaloes was brought to Paducah, and it was only a short time until nearly everybody in the city was a full-fledged member. It was more of a joke than anything else, but it was a great hit. A long list of rules and regulations was published, which allowed the lodge to meet at all times and in any place, and any person over sixteen years of age could become a member. Anyone could initiate an applicant, and the result was that much fun was had out of the order at other people's expense. It is no longer a joke, for a national order has been organized with headquarters at Indianapolis, and lodges are being instituted throughout Indiana and other states. It is on the order of the Elks, and is growing to be very popular.

A herd of Buffaloes was instituted in Evansville Monday night with 200 members, and it may be but a short time before a lodge will be organized in Paducah.

GOOD ROADS LAW.
MEETING OF THE KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION JANUARY 28.

The legislative committee of the Kentucky Good Roads Association will meet in Louisville Tuesday, January 28, for the purpose of formulating a good roads measure for presentation to the legislature. Letters have been sent to county judges in the state asking that any suggestions they may have to make with regard to the contemplated measure be sent to the committee at once. In addition, it is requested that any citizens who have suggestions to make also send them in.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. TOBE ROGERS
The funeral of the late Mr. Tobo Rogers took place this afternoon from the family residence on West Broadway, services by Rev. G. W. Perryman of the First Baptist church, and Rev. Thomas House, of the county. The Odd Fellows were in charge and the burial was at Oak Grove. Many friends followed the remains to their last resting place.

FOR COMPULSORY VACCINATION.
Wingo, Ky., Jan. 22.—The best citizens of this community have united in a petition to their representatives in the legislature for a compulsory vaccination law. The ravages of smallpox have been severely felt here, and it is hoped that other communities will prepare similar petitions.

PNEUMONIA AND LA GRIPPE.
Caught cold quickly by Foley's Honey and Tar. Refuse substitutes.

TRUE HAPPINESS
COLONEL LEMON TELLS OF A M'CRACKEN COUNTY MAN.
The Mayfield Messenger, in order to show an instance of unalloyed happiness, tells this story: "We have in mind one Charlie Humphreys, who was once a citizen of Marshall county, near Sharpe, but in later years moved eight miles west of Paducah, in McCracken county. There were eighteen children born to his family—nine boys and nine girls. They had a long table in their dining room, and when the time came to eat, the man would sit at one end of the table and his wife at the other, and the nine boys on one side and the nine girls on the other. This is what they would say made up true happiness. This was a prosperous farmer. Their mother is now a good looking woman with plenty of this world's goods about her sixteen or seventeen of the children are now married and are doing well."

THE TAX REDUCTION.
A TOTAL OF $10,000 ON TOBACCO AND WHISKY

Washington, Jan. 22.—Tobacco and whisky are to have a tax reduction according to the present Republican program. Tea is to get a ten cent reduction, making a total of $10,000,000. Beer is to have a reduction of sixty cents a barrel, which will give a further reduction of $25,000,000. This will still leave a surplus of over $65,000,000, which congress can have fun with in the way of canals, public buildings, shipping bills, etc.

FIRST IN A WEEK.
THE FERRY BOAT WAS ABLE TO LAND AT BROOKPORT TODAY.

The steamer Bettie Owen made a landing at the Brookport dock today for the first time in a week.

The regular dock of the ferry boat has been hung high and dry on the bank and since the time it was caught the tie barges and towboats have blockaded the levee so badly that the ferry was unable to get in. This morning, however, the boat had made an opening and the ferry men built a temporary dock and made the first landing in a week. There has been much complaint of late of the blockade and the matter was placed before the council here Monday night, but no action taken. The matter is a serious one to the ferryboat in a financial way, and also to the patrons of the boat, and should be remedied.

HAS RE-ENLISTED.
CORPORAL SHACKELFORD IS HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED BY SUPERIOR OFFICERS.

Corporal B. K. Shackelford of the recruiting station of Lexington re-enlisted in the army and into the recruiting station. His term of enlistment expired on the 26th of the present month, and several days ago he applied for reappointment, and received the same today. He was highly endorsed and complimented by John B. Rodman, the lieutenant of the Twentieth Infantry, of Louisville, and also highly complimented by the adjutant general, Major Henry C. Corbin, of Washington. Since Corporal Shackelford has been in Paducah he has enlisted twenty three men, and has broken the record of enlistments for that time here.

The "Florodora" company left the city this morning at 2 o'clock for Nashville in six coaches. The train was in charge of Engineer Frisz and is composed of two baggage cars, two day coaches and two sleepers. It was the largest special train ever run out of Paducah for the accommodation of an opera company.

PROFILE FORWARDED
A plat of the 20,000 acres on which Paducah wants the army site located, with a communication setting forth our claims to the post, were forwarded last night by Secretary Dains, of the Commercial club, to General Miles, at Washington, for the consideration of the army board that has the matter under advisement.

BAD FALL.
New York, Jan. 22.—Robert Fitzsimmons, the ex-champion heavy weight pugilist, fell down a flight of stairs in the Orpheum theatre in Brooklyn. It was believed that he seriously injured himself. He complained of very severe pains in his back and side, and it is feared his spine had been hurt.

ENGAGEMENT BROKEN.
New York, Jan. 22.—Mrs. H. B. Holman of this city announced today that her daughter Josephine had asked William Marconi, the developer of wireless telegraphy, to release her from her engagement to marry him, and that Mr. Marconi had complied with her request.

RECEIVED A PARDON
Arthur Winters, a young man convicted at Mayfield recently for passing forged checks, and given three years, has been pardoned. He was a stranger in Mayfield and claimed a check on Ligon, Allen and Co., that afterwards proved to be forged, was given to him by a man named Bolla.

$500 FOR HENDERSON CHURCH.
Washington, Jan. 22.—The committee on war claims this morning reported favorably a bill for the settlement of the claim of the Christian church at Henderson, Ky., for rent during the Civil War. The original claim of $1,500 was reduced to $500.

MARRIAGE IN GRAVES
Mayfield, Ky. Jan. 22.—Mr. John Ochoa and Miss Maude Willingham were married at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. J. H. Roberts. Both of these young people are very popular with the people who know them.

THE TRAMP DIED
Will Woods, the tramp in the Illinois Central wreck near South Fork last week, died at a farm house nearby, where he had been taken for treatment. He was stealing a ride when mashed by the collision.

A BARGAIN IN GLOVES.
Something more than a warm heart and an open hand is needed in dispensing charity. A Boston woman who wanted to be generous found this to be true in at least one case. She had been giving to a poor family, consisting of a mother and three grown daughters, a regular allowance of six dollars a week, until the daughters should find employment.

The eldest daughter called at the house every Saturday to receive this allowance. One week she appeared on Thursday, and wanted to know if it would be "quite convenient" for her benefactress to advance the money that day, instead of waiting until Saturday.

"We are in need of fuel and flour, and the man will call this evening for the weekly rent, and we haven't a penny to give him," she said.

"How does it happen that you are in this condition this week, when the six dollars I have been giving you has sufficed to pay your weekly expenses in the past?"

"Well, I'll tell you," replied the young woman, frankly and calmly. "Mamma was down town yesterday, and she came across such a genuine bargain in kid gloves that she felt that it would be almost wicked not to take advantage of it, so she got each of us girls and herself a pair. They're regular two dollar gloves, marked down to seventy-nine cents a pair, and mamma didn't know when she'd ever have another chance to save four dollars and eighty-four cents on four pairs of gloves, so she got them, and who could blame her?"

HENRY'S MONUMENT

One of the charms of life in the country is its moderation and freedom from hurry and excitement. It is possible, however, to have too much of a good thing, as an incident which happened recently in a New England farming district indicated.

Farmer Allen had gone up into his attic to get a spinning wheel, for the tableaux which the summer boarders were to produce in the town hall.

Like most country attics, it was packed with relics of several generations, but the thing which at once attracted the attention of the city girl who accompanied the farmer was a gravestone, tucked away under the eaves.

"Why, there's a gravestone," she said.

"Yes." The farmer dragged it out and turned its face to the light. The inscription on it read:

Sacred to the Memory of Henry F. Allen,
Born
1850
Died
1856

"Yes; that's Henry's stone—he was my youngest boy."

"But why—began the young woman—

"Why ain't I ever set it up?" There was a slight pause. Farmer Allen was returning the stone to its place under the eaves. "Well, I've always meant to," he continued, mildly, "but I ain't never got round to it."

MORE PROSPECTORS HERE.
Gentlemen who desire to secure a good location for a big lumber concern were in the city yesterday in conference with Secretary Dains of the Commercial club, and are well pleased with the many advantages offered by Paducah. Their plans are not fully enough matured to warrant a publication of their names at present.

The strike at the docks yesterday was quite a surprise to a great many people interested in nautical matters, but 'tis hoped that the difference will be adjusted today.

Early Exposition of Spring Goods

THE EARLY BIRD GETS THE WORM

The Up-to-Date Merchant Gets the Trade. We have just closed the most remarkably successful year in our experience. The reason for that success is not hard to discover. We have had the goods to command the attention of the shrewd buyer, and they did so. We are the largest buyers in Paducah, and by virtue of such fact are enabled to sell cheaper than our competitors. You know we do so. But, the past year, with its great success for our store, is now behind us. The Spring is awaiting attention. Therefore we direct your notice to the GRANDEST LINE ever offered the buying public of Paducah.
